* The PSAC football champion has been crowned every year, with the exception of three years during World War II, since 1934, when a group of sportswriters recognized champions among Pennsylvania's State Teachers Colleges. Since then, a variety of methods have determined league champions.

* In 1950, college representatives decided to employ the Saylor Points System. That practice gave way to the "State Game" beginning in 1960 when league administrators agreed an end-of-the-season contest between the Eastern and Western Division champions would be played to decide conference supremacy.

* The "State Game" was played until 1987 when membership determined to place more emphasis on access into the NCAA playoffs. From 1988-2007, only divisional champions were awarded.

* Beginning in 2008, the "State Game" was reinstated, giving the PSAC just one champion each year.

- Listed below are the PSAC champions prior to 1960.
